Sophie and Sarah's Review of Peter Pan

Surflight's children's season has kids talking about theatre

Review of Surflight Theater's children's theatre production of Peter Pan, By Sophia Yevchak, age 7 and her sister, Sarah, age 5:

Sophie's review:

The play was about Peter Pan arriving at Wendy's house and then all of them flying to Neverland. They meet the Lost Boys there. They also meet pirates who want to capture Peter Pan. Peter Pan doesn't want to grow up. He stays in Neverland and Wendy and the boys go back to their home. When Peter Pan returns, Wendy has already grown up but the adventure looks like it will continue with Wendy's daughter Jane. There were a lot of songs and in the middle of the show the children from the audience were invited to go up on stage and sing Happy Birthday.

I liked the part when they flew. My favorite actress was Wendy. I liked when Captain Hook sat on the mushroom and he burned his butt. Captain Hook was so silly that I really enjoyed it. Boys would like this show because there are pirates. I liked when they signed the autographs because you get to meet the characters and it was fun meeting them. I liked that we got to go up on stage and sing Happy Birthday to everyone. I liked everyone's costumes. Yes, I would go back and see it again.

Sarah's review:

I liked the part when they flew. It was silly and cool to see them fly. My favorite song was when Peter Pan sang "I Gotta Crow" because it was funny. Mrs. Darling's costume was my favorite because it was pretty. The other part I liked was when the Lost Boys thought they killed a white bird but it was Wendy. I would see it again! I liked getting autographs after the show. I am looking forward to seeing Wizard of Oz next week!

Here's what Sophie and Sarah's mom, Kathy, had to say about Surflight's children's theatre season:

We love Surflight Theater's children's shows! Each performance is about 1 hour long and a great introduction to the theater for children of all ages. I started bringing my oldest daughter when she was about 2 years old (she's now 7) and we have been going every summer since. The Wizard of Oz is our favorite show, but all of the shows are truly enjoyable with great costumes, humor, singing and entertainment. Afterwards, the actors and actresses are outside to meet the children and sign autographs and pose for pictures. At $10 per ticket, I think it's a great bargain! There are no assigned seats with your tickets, so there can be a long line to get into the theater. However, there is no bad seat in the house; the theater is small enough that you have a great view from any seat.
